

Jessie

Uriah Heep

She came just like a hurricane
She was the daughter born of earth and water
Then from the darkest cloud
She pushed on through
Like a flash of lightning

Oh, you're the wild wind blowing
Down that rocky road

Jessie can't sleep
She's in too deep
She just can't keep away
Jessie can't dream in colour
Black or white
She just sees things her way

There with her dirty mind
She's a desperate child,
Searching blindly
They couldn't change her ways
She was running hard towards disaster

Oh let the wild wind blow
And carry her away

Jessie can't sleep
She's in too deep
She just can't keep away
Jessie can't dream in colour
Black or white
She just sees things her way

She hears the calling of the moon
In the darkest sky
As it burn so brightly
There when the morning came
And the flow of life,
Took her power slowly

So let the wild wind blow
There's no way she can stay
Oh let the wild wind blow
And carry her away

Jessie can't sleep
She's in too deep
She just can't keep away
Jessie can't dream in colour
Black or white
She just sees things her way

Oh Jessie
Oh Jessie
