

Silver Sunlight

Uriah Heep

So many doors here to open
But I gotta choose which one
So many choices, directions and ways
Or do I run

On every door there's a symbol or sign
But I don't have a clue
My mind is numb with confusion for which one
Do I go through

Sensation leading me to somewhere
Sensation taking me to something new

Silver sunlight fills my eyes looking over
Crystal valleys, mountain tops flying over

Sensation leading me to somewhere
Sensation taking me to something new

And endless ocean of hoppers and dreamers
Washes over me
I take a ride in your telescopic image
Across the white sea

Silver sunlight fills my eyes looking over
Crystal valleys, mountain tops flying over

Sensation leading me to somewhere
