Over

Urma

I've veen trying no more rescue team
too much weakness, it's over one false desire

leads and blocks the way no more rescue, it's over so wht the hell you want from me you take for grnted all I give no more complaints, I'll hear no more not even one word

no more of you, I had enough you don't deserve to share my track enjoy your broken self-esteem I had enough

No more running
No more hiding
No more trying
It's over

just stop your whining, let me be embarrassment is all you give a drama queen, that's what you are no nerve in your heart

no more of this, I had enough I've learned my leson, just stand back

I'll get my silence in the end away from you

No more running
No more trying
No more hiding
It's over
