

There's a Time

Urma

waiting by
when you have to pay the price

should I wait
should I waste
under pressure
losing faith

Well it hurts me
enough
And we wased
Enough

there's a time
eater time
when you have to
pay the ride

what is fair
what is right
make your choice
and buy some time

close my eyes
open heart
every easy way is hard

humble knees
begging please
when you crawl
you're not complete

So it hurts me
Got to run for a while in your arms

there's a day
usual day
when you have to
led the wy

just one shot
just one trial
if you lose you're out of time

Got to run for a while in your arms
got to give me
some

got to give before I start my run
got to waste a little
kindness on me
something straight
to heal me

got to help me understand
got to rush yourself
before it ends
something right
to change me
