Naive Bravado

Yo, yo, check it

[Verse 1: Urthboy]

Now if I were you, wouldn't be listening to me
I would trust about as far as the eyes can see
A heart that's bleeding from the dream you're leaving
Through debris you're breathing you can smell defeat
What you're receiving is for far beyond reason
Where you grieve every evening every day of the week
Ducking and weaving and you're stuck in the deep end
Nothing of it is even nowhere to put up your feet
All of it beating a drum eating away at the one
Doubting the ray of the sun inevitably
Can't carry it weighing a tonne every day in a month
Hoping you day it'd come, never to be
They wash their hands of you and nobody notices you it's like
They abandoned you as if you were cheap
They don't know how far you've come just to compete
The cards you've been dealt were there to be beat

[Hook: Daniel]

Come with me get hypnotised
Free you from your troubled mind
Naive bravado, get you naive bravado
Come with me get hypnotised
Wake up, and realise
Naive bravado, get your naive bravado

[Verse 2: Urthboy]

Fuck the world is part of your armour, part of your honour
Part of your karma like you're ready to die
Christopher Wallace you give it your hardest
Swim with piranhas, guilty of charges no one letting em fly
Come as you are you're singing Nirvana, a Donnie Darko
Digging in darker but it's sucking you dry
Fight for your mind it's something like Harper
For starters you are smarter than the credit the garner but why?
They wash their hands of you as if you don't matter enough
Like they can abandon you as if they were blind
You ain't come this far to end up standing aside
The limits imposed are there to defy

Until, you're neck deep in the breaks
And it gets real, non-belevers kneel and pray
And when all your dreams drift and slip away
And you're pushed to the brink about to break

Until, you're neck deep in the breaks
And it gets real, non-belevers kneel and pray
And when all your dreams drift and slip away
And you're pushed to the brink about to break

[Hook: Daniel]

Come with me get hypnotised
Free you from your troubled mind

Naive bravado, get you naive bravado
Come with me get hypnotised
Wake up, and realise
Naive bravado, get your naive bravado

[Bridge: Urthboy & Daniel]
Let it be known, you're never alone
Come with me, c'mon tell me are you with me
We've come too far to be conned
I'm a tell you straight you're strong
Come with me, c'mon tell me are you with me

[Hook: Daniel]
Come with me get hypnotised
Free you from your troubled mind
Naive bravado, get you naive bravado
Come with me get hypnotised
Wake up, and realise
Naive bravado, get your naive bravado
