U.S. Girls

Mind is on fire
So full of desire for you
Yes I aim to win
But you ashamed you dress you do
Dress the way you do
You're a sentimental man
You're a God complex in suede
You're a sentimental man
Oh, it's a shame you dress the way you do
You dress the way do

I saw how you looked at that man
Tease, tease, desire for you
Guess I aim to wear you down
But know that you're ashamed
To dress the way you do
You dress the way you do
You're a sentimental man
You're a God complex dressed in suede
You're a sentimental man
Oh, it's a shame you dress the way you do
You dress the way you do
You wear it the way you do
