

Woman's Work

U.S. Girls

That woman's work is never done
That woman's work is never done
She doesn't sleep 'til the morning comes
Transformation that was promised made her come undone

That woman's work is never done
That woman's work is never done
She doesn't sleep 'til she sees the sun
Transformation that was promised made her come undone

But, Cindy, you know you've lost it
You lost it in the synthesis
You found a way down
And now your work is never done
You signed up for it
A religion of beauty and it
It won't lead to bliss

(There's no reversal
You can't stop aging
It's always on the way)

You arrived in your mother's arms, but you'll leave riding in a black limousine
You arrived in your mother's arms, but you'll leave riding in a black limousine
You arrived in your mother's arms, but you'll leave riding in a black limousine
You arrived in your mother's arms, but you'll leave riding in a black limousine
