

Bricks

Us The Duo

Don't wanna get locked away
In a neighborhood I can't escape
The more years that go by
The harder it is to leave

Don't wanna get locked inside
A polo and khaki life
I can't be who I am when
No one understands me

But you do, you always did
You do, you always did

Bricks, I'm imprisoned by expensive white fences
But my senses tell me your kiss
Is enough to satisfy my intentions
But I'm buried in these bricks

Don't wanna drown in a sea
Of black and white TV's
There's so much color hiding
Right behind the small screen

Don't wanna get trapped inside
A typical nine to five
Breathing recycled air
Where no one understands me

But you do, you always did
You do, you always did

Bricks, I'm imprisoned by expensive white fences
But my senses tell me your kiss
Is enough to satisfy my intentions
But I'm buried in these bricks

But you do, you always did
You do, you always did

Bricks, I'm imprisoned by expensive white fences
But my senses tell me your kiss
Is enough to satisfy my intentions
But I'm buried in these bricks

I'm buried in these bricks
I'm buried in these bricks