

Luckiest Man

Usher

I had to sit back and take it all in
Protect the shit that everybody don't get to see
Talkin' crazy to me and I'm all ears
You can have anybody, but you're here with me
I want you to know that I recognize the signal shit you do
But you far beneath, for that, I fuck with you
I've seen a million girls, but ain't seen none like you
I got options, baby, but you're still the one I (Choo-oo-oo-oose)

I made up my mind, I'm gon' get it right this time (Choo-oo-oo-oose)
Lovin' your desire, peepin' all the signs, you're my type (Choo-oo-oo-oose)

I must be the luckiest man in the world
How'd I get so fortunate to make you my girl?
Moments with you, I can't miss it
Can't afford to risk it, answered all my wishes, I-I-I
I must be the luckiest man in the world
How'd I get so fortunate to make you my girl?
Moments with you, I can't miss it
Can't afford to risk it, answered all my wishes, I-I-I

Like a lucky number seven, like a four-leaf clover, babe
Like a wishbone, got a big bone, I'ma bury it in ya
I hate to check by with you, but I got to play my cards right
'Cause I know there's another that's willin' to do
Things of changes, tryin' rearrange us, but I ain't trading places
For you, I'm catching cases
Way too far from basic and you ain't worried 'bout that fame shit
You got options, but I'm still the one you, ooh (Choo-oo-oo-oose)

I made up my mind, I'm gon' get it right this time (Choo-oo-oo-oose)
Loving your desire, peeping all the signs, you're my type (Choo-oo-oo-oose)

I must be the luckiest man in the world
How'd I get so fortunate to make you my girl?
Moments with you, I can't miss it
Can't afford to risk it, answered all my wishes, I-I-I
I must be the luckiest man in the world
How'd I get so fortunate to make you my girl?
Moments with you, I can't miss it
Can't afford to risk it, answered all my wishes, I-I-I

I sent a thousand prayers for you
I still got room in my heart I'm savin'
When you catch me starin' at you
Baby, you already know what I'm thinkin'

I must be the luckiest pessimist, but you make me optimistic
We can have a bunch of kids, cars to grip in, a brand new pot to piss in
I don't want to take the car, I want to make the call just to ask you how yo ur day been
You're a blessing and that's amazing
So I'm saying

Ooh-oo-oh, I must be the luckiest man in the world
How'd I get so fortunate to make you my girl?
Moments with you, I can't miss it

Can't afford to risk it, answered all my wishes, I-I, yeah
I must be the luckiest man in the world
How'd I get so fortunate to make you my girl?
Moments with you, I can't miss it
Can't afford to risk it, answered all my wishes, I
