Tell me that you'll never ever leave me
Then you go ahead and leave me
What the hell is going on
Tell me that you really really love me
Then you go ahead and leave me
How the hell do I go on...

Tell me that you'll never ever leave me
Then you go ahead and leave me
What the hell is going on
Tell me that you really really love me
Then you go ahead and leave me
How the hell do I go on
Tell me that you'll never ever leave me
Then you go ahead and leave me
What the hell is going on...

I start walking on the warm sand
On a seaside where none of my bad souvenirs can reach
Even if you're not here, the sun will rise
And a new day begins
The lottery ticket I picket today said
You never know where you'll end up
The lazy me has
A reason to work every day

Aah hold the sky with both hands, there's a storm in my heart
Farewells to you
Aah scattered along these beach are all the letters you've sent
In my dreams, or even just on the phone
I want to hear your voice
You were never good with words
So you always sent me letters

I know I should have called you more often
But everyone forgets once in a while
Today I talked to an old man
It's ok to be alone
Me, who thinks way too much, haven't made up my mind yet

Aah I'll give a name to a flower, and a wish to a star
Aah I'll give me to you
All there's left sitting by my window
Are the letters you always send
Even just a little bit, or even through your shirt
I want to touch you
I still remember one thing you promised
That you'd come back for sure
Where my thoughts are, where my dream goes on
You'll be welcome
From wherever I'll be in the world
I'll keep sending myself to you
In my dreams, or even just on the phone
I want to hear your voice
But if again, you run away from conversation
It will then come to the time
Where you shouldn't leave anything behind

Tell me that you'll never ever leave me
Then you go ahead and leave me
What the hell is going on?
Tell me that you really really love me
Then you go ahead and leave me
How the hell do I go on?
How the hell do I go on?
