If I remember, from a distance
The future was shining everywhere
Under the beautiful blue sky
We were only a little scared

The window is dyed with a nostalgic colour

If I advance ahead, will we ever meet again?
The future continues on everywhere
Under the big signboard
I want to watch the changing times

I'll open the window to people and places that I'll not be seeing again

If I remember, from a distance
The future was shining everywhere
Under the beautiful blue sky
We slept forever

The person that I liked a long time ago
A child will be born in winter
What I decided a long time ago
I would want to have doubts about it sometimes
The New Year's card that I could never forget
Is there a photograph attached to it?
I think very fondly of what we couldn't do
When I look back, it's a bit nostalgic

Under the blue sky
