Panache

Vacations

Oh no, you're handing out riddles again
All mind games left here so delicately
You should know better not to mess around like that
You should know better not to waste my time like that

Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ohhhhh

Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ohhhhh

Why you gotta be like that?
Just meet me in the middle
Why you gotta be like that?
Just try to keep it civil

Oh no, I keep on reaching out my hand
For contact I think I'll never feel
You should know better not to throw me out like that Thought you planned on pulling in the reel

Why you gotta be like that?
Just meet me in the middle
Why you gotta be like that?
Just try to keep it civil

Why you gotta be like that?
Just meet me in the middle
Why you gotta be like that?
Just try to keep it civil

I've been waiting by the phone
I've been waiting all night long
I've been waiting by the phone
I've been waiting

Come to me
'Cause I could be your superstar
Love is all we need
It's tender, like the martyr's cause

Come to me
'Cause I could be your superstar
Love is all we need
It's tender, like the martyr's cause
You should know better
(Babe the phone let's it know)
Not to waste my time
(Turn the lights off, turn the lights off)
You should know better
('Cause I need that in)
Not to waste
(Tell the phone, ring, ring)
My time
(It's tender, like the martyr's cause)

I've been waiting on the phone
I've been waiting all night long
(It's a late night)
(It's a late night, no day, no)
I've been waiting on the phone
I've been waiting

Ohhhhh

Ooooh

Ohhhhh

Ohhhhhh
