

Steady

Vacations

Before I hit the ground
It's your hand that reaches out
Keeps me from falling down
When I thought this was over, somehow

You keep me steady
When this feeling hits me
And I'm not ready

Put me back together
And tell me it's okay
And I couldn't ask for anyone better
When I thought this was over, somehow

You keep me steady
When this feeling hits me
And I'm not ready
You keep me steady
When I lose my balance
When I can't see clearly

You keep me steady
When this feeling hits me
And I'm not ready
You keep me steady
When I lose my balance
When I can't see clearly
