Hey Gorgeous, yeah, you gorgeous
So important to me, I can't ignore it

Caught you on the blocck, before you got in your foreign
Like, where you goin?

They say your skin tells how you been, and you been glowin
See you on your shit, you lit, you live growin
Comfy sweats, socks Rick Owens
I been on it

Yeah, you sicknin, yeah, you special
But you different
There was never a woman in your position
That could never make me feel there was competition
Yeah, you sicknin, yeah, you special
But you different
There was never a woman in your position
That could never make me feel there was competition

How you gon do that?
Where your switch ups at?
Where them bumm bitches posted in your pictures at?

You gotta get it together before it get like that What up, Handsome?

Cool, calm, collected and then some
You popped up on me, that was random
Had to tell your friends "chill", like, don't ramp 'm
Ain't got time to play with you
If I wanted that life, I would've stayed with you
Being blond and miserable was OK with you
To the point, I got physicall everyday with you
Yeah, now you talkin to me nice
Cause my new boo done put me in the light
I was in his Coope, when you caught me at the light
Tryna ride the wave, but I thought he would be tight

Yeah, you sicknin, yeah, you special
But you different
There was never a woman in your position
That could never make me feel there was competition
Yeah, you sicknin, yeah, you special
But you different
There was never a woman in your position
That could never make me feel there was competition
