

Be Consumed

Vagrants

Day breaks through
We hide ourselves in the abuse
So lost, no way to find you
We saw what it's like to be consumed

By a relentless, suffocating sound
Who's only weakness came to be bound
By the fury and the fright
Of that unrelenting, sleepless night
We lost all sense of how to find peace inside the light

In a single moment
We saw what it's like to be consumed
We saw what it's like to be consumed

Be consumed
Be consumed

We saw what it's like to be consumed
Be consumed

Can you feel the divide that separates you and I?
Can you feel the divide
Can you feel the divide

Was it a single moment, or a seamless eternity?
Was it a longing to be, or an unwillingness to see?

Two roads diverge in the darkness of my mind
These paths converge, erase the light of the divine
Oh, how cruel we are
Oh, how far we fall

And there you stood, merely watching my descent
Hopelessly abandoned, was this always the intent?
Oh, how cruel we are
Oh, how far we fall
