

Lit Up/Let Down

Vains of Jenna

Deep lines, broken smile
Nothings gonna change but the burn
Ring of fire kept me alive
Been lit up, let down
Always in the same 'ol mood
Dressed in black i'm walkin' the line

Oh!
Oh!

Tried to make it all on my own
But i was too far gone
Tried to make it all on my own
But i was too far gone

Blue eyes, shade of pale
Trapped inside these paper walls
I'm a photograph, fading to grey
I saw tear-stained letters on a passing train
But the colours never came to life
Colour me up like before!

Oh!
Oh!

Tried to make it all on my own
But i was too far gone
Searching for the strength to go on
But i was too far gone...

Tried to make it all on my own
But i was too far gone
Tried to make it all on my own
But i was too far gone!

Tryin' and fightin'
And breaking through to myself
Tryin' and fightin'
Yea!

Tried to make it all on my own
But i was too far gone
Tried to make it all on my own
But i was too far gone!
Yea!

Lit up, let down...
Colour me up again!
Lit up, let down...
