

On The Run

Valerie Dore

Sunsets and sunrise
Nights and new days Stars chasing planets show you the way Tides of emotions
cut you like blades
See the years
the wind blows away
from you ooh

Life is your hunger High is your pride
roaring like thunder
burning your life Moving now faster
through roads and times are the young
at heart and in mind
Like you, ooh

You're on the run
You're out there heading for the sun
You're on the run
And you'll be riding 'til you've won You're on the run you'll turn the whole world on You're on the run

Hold back your horses
Lord of the years
Death is forbidden
so are the tears
This soul is riding
against all fears end its goal
is still miles from here
yours too, ooh
