

Sweet Things Just for You

Valerie June

And I happen to think I'm in the place
To do some sweet things just for you

It's in the sweet things that you say
It's in the sweet things that you do
And I happen to think I'm in the place
To do some sweet things just for you
So first I write you this love song
And I sing it in the softest tone
If these words don't measure how I feel
Then, hopefully, the music will

Just for you, I would swim more than a thousand seas
Just to spend a day or night in your good company
Just for you, I would learn to paint the sun's bright beams
And just for you, I'd even paint the midnight moonbeams too
Just for you

Well, although we're miles and seas apart
I'm keeping you close to my heart
I close my eyes and see your face
Blue light and love and a warm embrace

Just for you, I would swim across a thousand seas
Just to spend a day or night in your good company
Just for you, I would learn to sing light's evening song
And just for you, I'd dance my rain dance all night long
Just for you
Just for you
Mm, just for you
Just for you

Well, it's in the sweet things that you say
It's in the sweet things that you do
And I happen to know I'm in the place
To do some sweet things just for you
