

BE THE ONE

Valley

I'll be the one to get hurt
You'll be the one to go out
I'll be the one that your friends in the office talk shit about (Yeah)
You'll be the one to leave first
I'll be the one to miss out
And I'll be the one rewatching The Office all by myself
I'll be the one to get hurt

Everyone's looking for someone, eternity
Keeps calling my name
I'll wait for the day
Someone's looking out for me
Everyone's scared of something, security
Somebody's always leavin'
Even when you really need 'em
When it comes to you and me

It's sad but true
If I had to choose
I promise you that I'll make sure

I'll be the one to get hurt (Get hurt)
You'll be the one to go out (Go out)
I'll be the one that your friends in the office talk shit about (Yeah)
You'll be the one to leave first (Leave first)
I'll be the one to miss out (Miss out)
And I'll be the one rewatching The Office all by myself
I'll be the one to get hurt
(I'll be the one)

Everyone's looking for something (What), identity
You can dye your hair blue try to match your mood
'Cause it changes every other week
Maybe you feel like running
Where will that lead
With this anxiety

It's sad but true
If I had to choose
I promise you that I'll make sure

I'll be the one to get hurt (Get hurt)
You'll be the one to go out (Go out)
I'll be the one that your friends in the office talk shit about (Yeah)
You'll be the one to leave first (Leave first)
I'll be the one to miss out (Miss out)
And I'll be the one rewatching The Office all by myself
I'll be the one to get hurt
(I'll be the one)

My therapist Wendy knows your name
I'm starting to hate myself this way
You'll be the one, you'll be the one that leaves first
But will I always be the one, the one that gets hurt
Fuck it, should we just do an outro like?

I'll be the one

I, I
I'll be the one
