

Won't lie
Won't let that plant you gave me die
(It's my child)
Won't lie, that plant you gave me
The only thing we got
That still survived

Someone's 'bout to get a, get a brand new wardrobe
Cause all your shits in the Goodwill storage room
Calculate what the break-up cost you
Couldn't get me back, get me back if you paid me
Good luck no fucks if you hate me
You're not invited to my birthday party

Bloom, I'm beaming in the light
The grass is greener on my side
Jolly Ranchers in the sky
Every part of us has died

Won't lie
Won't let that plant you gave me die
(That's my child)
Won't lie, that plant you gave me
The only thing we got
That still survived
You

Got a couple snacks, couple snacks from the basement
Took a shot and went online dating
Looking for a future like that's so raven
You
Couldn't get me back, get me back, couldn't change me
Good luck no fucks if ya hate me
You're not invited to my birthday party

Bloom, I'm beaming in the light
The grass is greener on my side
Jolly Ranchers in the sky
Every part of us has died
