

Break For You

Valley

Give me your broken
Give me your burden
All of the hurt you hideaway
Give me your ugly
Give me your lonely
All of the words you're scared to say
Baby come closer
Head on my shoulder
You know I'll carry all the weight
Give me your broken
Give me your burden
I'll break I'll break I'll break
I'll break for you

If you just let me in
I could be here all night
Your eyes say everything
And I know what that feels like

Oh but I would
Fight for this forever
I could take the pressure
Whatever comes

Give me your broken
Give me your burden
All of the hurt you hideaway
Give me your ugly
Give me your lonely
All of the words you're scared to say
Baby come closer
Head on my shoulder
You know I'll carry all the weight
Give me your broken
Give me your burden
I'll break for you

Break for you
I'll break for you

Even when the worlds on fire
You pretend that it's alright
Cause I ain't never seen you cry
Holding it all inside oh you know
I would
Fight for this forever
I could take the pressure
Whatever comes

Give me your broken
Give me your burden
All of the hurt you hideaway
Give me your ugly
Give me your lonely
All of the words you're scared to say

Baby come closer
Head on my shoulder
You know I'll carry all the weight
Give me your broken
Give me your burden
I'll break for you

(You know I'll carry all the weight)
You know I'll break for you
I'll break I'll break
I'll break for you

Break for you
I'll break for you
