Have A Good Summer (Without Me)

Valley

You're a red balloon floating in a blue sky
The reason for the tears in my eyes
The feeling that I felt for the first time

You're the sun that's setting right behind the ocean
Tell me I don't feel the door closing
Either way, I'll leave my heart open
'Cause forever and ever you're gonna

Drive all night
'Cause you're born to run
If I'm not right
Then go find the one
Whatever's gonna make you happy
Have a good summer without me

And If you fall for somebody new
Do everything that we used to do
I hope it gets you thinkin' about me
Have a good summer without me

You're a sad song at the ending of our movie
Can't you hear what you're doing to me
Stevie, won't you come back soon please

Real loving never gets a goodbye
It tears you up and leaves you on the outside
Rumours have it you're doing alright
'Cause forever and ever you're gonna

Drive all night
'Cause you're born to run
If I'm not right
Then go find the one
Whatever's gonna make you happy
Have a good summer without me

And if you fall for somebody new
Do everything that we used to do
I hope it gets you thinkin' about me
Have a good summer without me

Don't call me if you're lonely
Have a good summer without me
Only call me if you love me
Have a good summer without me

Drive all night
'Cause you're born to run
If I'm not right
Then go find the one
Whatever's gonna make you happy
Have a good summer without me

And if you fall for somebody new
Do everything that we used to do
I hope you're fucking thinking about me

Have a good summer without me
