Valley

Hit me with your late call
Hit me with your sad song
Lately, I've been on the run
But if you don't love me, then you're not my love
Hit me with a Holocene
I wish you could reach out to me
Growing up ain't easy
But if you don't mind it, then you won't mind me

It's not a vain trap door
Part of an elaborate show
I can hear you in my headphones
But you won't hear me
There's not a secret code
Swung behind the hidden door
I can hear you in my headphones
But you won't hear me

Listen to me at night
The sound isn't always kind
Walking down the green mile
So if I don't leave now, then I'm left behind

It's not a vain trap door
Part of an elaborate show
I can hear you in my headphones
But you won't hear me
There's not a secret code
Swung behind the hidden door
I can hear you in my headphones
But you won't hear me

(I can hear you in my headphones)
(I can hear you in my headphones)
I can hear you in my headphones
I can hear you in my headphones
