

I Haven't Seen You In Forever

Valley

There are times that I love you
There are times that I don't
There are times that I thought I lost you
But then, I didn't even look
You were all that I wanted
When I needed a friend
There are times when I wonder
Will I see you again?

I haven't seen you in forever, forever
I keep forgetting to remember, remember
That life goes by
You learn to laugh and then, you cry
Sometimes, oh, my
I haven't seen you in forever
Forever
I haven't seen you in forever
Forever

So I'm taking the long road
Going back to my place
So that I can just keep on imagining
When I get home
I might open the door to your face
Everything's changed
But maybe not in the right way
Okay, I guess I'm not doing okay
Just say
That I'll see you again

I haven't seen you in forever, forever
I keep forgetting to remember, remember
That life goes by
You learn to laugh and then, you cry
Sometimes, oh, my
I haven't seen you in forever
Forever
I haven't seen you in forever
Forever

I haven't seen you in forever
Everything's changed
But maybe not in the right way
Okay, I guess I'm not doing okay
I haven't seen you in forever
Just say, say, say, say, say
"I haven't seen you in forever"
