

Keep My Stuff

Valley

There's little things you never think about
Like calling your name in an empty house
To hear the echo coming back around
So deafening
Glad it ain't happening

Sometimes I just sit here
And get lost in my thoughts
With all the possibilities of how it could go wrong

If we ever break up
It would hurt too much
And you own my heart already
So just keep my stuff because
It would just remind me, I wasn't enough
And the only thing I wanted was you-ooh-ooh-ooh
Ooh-ooh-ooh

There's little things you never think about
Like watching TV without Cooper on the couch
Meet our friends for dinner
Promise we'll be civil
'Cause last time they had to plan two birthday parties

Sometimes I just sit here
And get lost in my thoughts
With all the possibilities of how it could go wrong

If we ever break up
It would hurt too much
And you own my heart already
So just keep my stuff because
It would just remind me, I wasn't enough
And the only thing I wanted was you-ooh-ooh-ooh
Ooh-ooh-ooh

If we ever break up
It would fuck me up
'Cause you own my heart forever
So just keep my stuff
