

You

Valley

When you feel so tired, lying on your side
Waiting for decisions when the cup of coffee is your true religion
Ooh, head up
Ooh, head up

Come the morning I'll need you
'Cause empty pockets won't do
Just take a walk in my shoes
Come the morning I'll need you
But tonight I don't wanna fight

Pluralise your vision, how I'd love to see your eyes
Coming up for air gets harder, with your t-shirts
And you wear 'em just like your father
Yeah, you wear 'em just like your father

Come the morning I'll need you
'Cause empty pockets won't do
Just take a walk in my shoes
Come the morning I'll need you
But tonight I don't wanna fight

Sunday morning when I'm sleeping (She's got a heart for the ones who just drive around)
(Only waits for the call when we get into town)
Find you next to me I feel it (Sink 'til you swim and your money is gone)
(I need a change, change, change)
Sunday morning when I'm sleeping (All the right moves and all the right times)
(Just say it to my face, don't say it online)
My God, he's a liar
I figured him out
I need a change, change, change

Come the morning I'll need you
'Cause empty pockets won't do
Just take a walk in my shoes
Come the morning I'll need you
But tonight I don't wanna fight
