

Oceans

Vallis Alps

Oh this is just the final day
The fight you gave
The fight I gave up

You burnt your lips cause you're unafraid
The light you gave
The light I gave up

Well I set it out in the fire blue
Your heart was in the valley too
In the desert I will carry you
I'll carry you
I'll carry you

And if this is the price to pay
You'll never look the other way
You'll never look the other way
Oh

Catch me
Oh my heart is steady
Oh my light is growing
We're standing in oceans

Oh this is just the final game
The fight you gave
The fight I gave up

Dismiss the words that your eyes betray
The light you gave
The light I gave up

If it's all I do
My heart beats true, and
With all I forgave
If this was ours again
I'd set it aflame
So

Catch me
Oh my heart is steady
Oh my light is growing
We're standing in oceans
