

On The Eve Of The Rush

Vallis Alps

Sentiment, all I had
I was down, paperweights on my back
Desert sand covering up my tracks
Oh my brother don't make all those plans

Sentiment, left its mark
Got me spinning around in the dark
Swept the dust off my hands in the park
Oh my brother don't pull it apart

Do you run away my love?

Did I lose touch?
Or did I take too much?
Did I prove enough
On the eve of rush?

Did I lose touch?
Or did I take too much?
Did I prove enough
On the eve of rush?

Sentiment all I had
I was down paperweights on my back
Give it all to show you my trust
Or run out my luck
The time is up
Oh I know I'm not above
Being not enough
When I'm in the dust

Did I lose touch?
Or did I take too much?
Did I prove enough
On the eve of rush?

Did I lose touch?
Or did I take too much?
Did I prove enough
On the eve of rush?

Did I lose touch?
Or did I take too much?
Did I prove enough
On the eve of rush?

Did I lose touch?
Or did I take too much?
Did I prove enough
On the eve of rush?
