

Pulling Me Back

Vallis Alps

Let's disappear
I wanna relate
I'm watching the sun
Take shape

It's cold in here
You're talking too fast
I cannot relax
It's clear

And I
Was so afraid
I let you wait
And I'm trying
Not to go insane
It's make or make or break

Oh I want it all
Won't let this get away
You know I'll change my ways
But something keeps pulling me back

Oh I want it all
Don't wanna hesitate
But now it's getting late
And something keeps pulling me
Something keeps pulling me back

Back, oh back, back
I gotta say, that I wasn't gonna take it all the way
Back, back, oh back, back
Cuz every day feels like another chance to make or break
Make or break, break, break

I walk away
I couldn't relate
Couldn't imitate your pace

The disarray
I'm stuck in my ways
So caught in this web I've made

Just wait ooh
I gotta say that I wasn't gonna set this all ablaze
So stay
Cuz every day feels like another chance to make or break
Make or break, break, break

Oh I want it all
Won't let this get away
You know I'll change my ways
But something keeps pulling me back

Oh I want it all
Don't wanna hesitate

Something keeps pulling me back

Back, oh back, back

I gotta say, that I wasn't gonna take it all the way

Oh back, back, oh back, back

Cuz every day feels like another chance to make or break...

And I

Was so afraid

I let you wait

And I'm trying

Not to go insane

It's make or make or break

Oh I want it all

Won't let this get away

You know I'll change my ways

But something keeps pulling me back

Oh I want it all

Don't wanna hesitate

But now it's getting late

And something keeps pulling me

Something keeps pulling me back

Back, oh back, back

I gotta say, that I wasn't gonna take it all the way

Cuz every day feels like another chance to make or break...
