

When the distance bends the gravity
Of the sentiments I hide
In my heart I'll build a castle I could find

And if the planets speak to me
Of the doubts that stir my mind
I'll turn them into ornaments of light

Cause somewhere in the darkness there's a fire bright
And though it's distant I can feel it when I close my eyes (ooh
)
And what if it's the shadows that'll prove the light
Then maybe it was my mistakes that gave me life
Gave me life

So as fate gives way to decency
And the mountains catch alight
It's a token of their ordinance tonight

And I'll explain my reasoning
When the time is right
Til then, I'll take my secret and reside

Cause somewhere in the darkness there's a fire bright
And though it's distant I can feel it when I close my eyes (ooh
)
And what if it's the shadows that'll prove the light
Then maybe it was my mistakes that gave me life
Gave me life

And now we're one step closer to our wonderment
At how our footprints set into the gold
But don't forget to take it slow
Don't forget to take it slow

As distance bent the gravity
Of the sentiments I'd hide
In my heart, I built a castle
How could I?
How could I?
How could I?
How could I?
How could I?
