

You're On My Mind

Vallis Alps

Well maybe I do, maybe I don't
I've been confused, out on my own
But if I say it, everything changes
In your eyes
Covered up disguise

So I took a step into the unknown
I held my breath and opened the door
I saw you fading, everything changes
Out of sight
Only the first time
Only the first time

You're on my mind
You're on mind
And I'm missing home
And everything I know
You're on mind
At the worst time

I'm at the station down at the end
Thought I could try to listen, instead
I've been so jaded
Everything changes
In due time
I waited my whole life
I waited my whole life
Ooh
In due time
Watching you pass by
I waited my whole life

You're on my mind
You're on mind
And I'm missing home
And everything I know
You're on my mind
At the worst time

(You're on my mind
You're on mind
And I'm missing home
And everything I know
You're on my mind
At the worst time)

Well maybe I do, maybe I don't
I've been confused, out on my own
But if I say it, everything changes
In your eyes
I waited my whole life
I waited my whole life
Ooh
In due time
Watching you pass by
I waited my whole life

You're on my mind
You're on mind
And I'm missing home
And everything I know
You're on mind
At the worst time

(You're on my mind
You're on mind
And I'm missing home
You're on my mind
At the worst time)

You're on mind
At the worst time
