Shiver

Vampires on Tomato Juice

And when I fall into sleep

Hands are reaching for me
In the darkest spotlight

There are no secrets to keep

Children pointing at me
Get lipsticks for my suicide
A thousand mirrors breakin'
When my wounds are achin'

Nightmares, shiver, insanity my dear
Locked, chaos and dripping bloody tears
(dreams, fear, stutter, pain)

They are trying to change my mind
Past is a bitch you can't unwind
They are tryin'

Nothing is left
This nightmare so worn
Storm in my mind
Reality gone
Trust no more
Heaven's shore
In all of us

Hands are reachin' for me
In this darkest spotlight
Children pointing at me
Get lipsticks for my suicide
(ben freaks out)

Freedom coming with guns
Worldwar goin' on inside
But you destroy everything
When my wounds are aching

Cold blowing wind and the moths come in
They tell me to to leave – they breed on my skin
They just pretend – drill down inside
But in the end – they fuck me and rape me and eat all my soup
