

From the End

Van Canto

I rise again from the ashes of the end
I am the only survivor, the sole resident
Of a planet earth. Evolution? A dead end
Failure of us all

Force alignment nationwide
No chance to run away, hide away
Concealed retreat, blood on our way

From the end comprehend:
There is no use in denial
Remaining time is like an island on shifting sands
From the end understand:
For treason we'll stand trial
Our fate is walking down the aisle of descent
From the end

I'll face it
I am driven by belief
I feel the merciless endeavor
The road to relief is a labyrinth
A dream that never sleeps
A nightmare without end

Endless realms of insanity
Mislead and deceive
Blasphemous profanity
False faithfulness is all I see

Force alignment nationwide
No chance to run away, hide away
Concealed retreat, blood on our way

From the end comprehend:
There is no use in denial
Remaining time is like an island on shifting sands
From the end understand:
For treason we'll stand trial
Our fate is walking down the aisle of descent
From the end

Far from the end
Far from the end
Far from the end I cry

Endless realms of insanity
Mislead and deceive
Blasphemous profanity
False faithfulness is all I see

Force alignment nationwide
No chance to run away, hide away
Concealed retreat, blood on our way

From the end comprehend:
There is no use in denial
Remaining time is like an island on shifting sands

From the end understand:
For treason we'll stand trial
Our fate is walking down the aisle of descent
From the end understand:
There is no use in denial
Remaining time is like an island on shifting sands
From the end understand:
For treason we'll stand trial
Our fate is walking down the aisle of descent
