

Hardrock Padlock

Van Canto

I've got a hardrock padlock, locking away
Everything with meaning to me
And this hardrock padlock is my breakaway
Securing everything I will be

You can tease me and push me around
You can squeeze me and then knock me out
You may like to tear me apart
But you can't take my heart

You can blame me for things you have done
And then cheat on me with another one
You can prove you're in control
But you can't take my soul

For everything's worth
It's been a long time coming
Here is how the story unfolds

I've got a hardrock padlock, locking away
Everything with meaning to me
And this hardrock padlock is my breakaway
Securing everything I will be

You belie me. You're letting me down
You malign me and then cut me out
But you fail to kill me again
I am another man

For everything's worth
It's been a long time coming
Here is how the story is told

I've got a hardrock padlock, locking away
Everything with meaning to me
And this hardrock padlock is my breakaway
Securing everything I will be

My love is unharmed
When I hear rock n roll drumming
It's driving every beat of my heart
The world is alarmed
The encore is forthcoming
It is unleashed. Shiny and stunning

For everything's worth
It's been a long time coming
Here is how the story is told

I've got a hardrock padlock, locking away
Everything with meaning to me
And this hardrock padlock is my breakaway
Securing everything I will be

I've got a hardrock padlock, locking away
Everything with meaning to me
And this hardrock padlock is my breakaway

Securing everything I will be

My love is unharmed
When I hear rock n roll drumming
It's driving every beat of my heart
The world is alarmed
The encore is forthcoming
It is unleashed. Shiny and stunning

Hardrock Padlock, lock me away
