

Trust in Rust

Van Canto

Hitting one more headline
"They're unbelievable!"
Exceeding every deadline
Proved to be invincible
"Damn they're looking good - Irresistible!"
Setting up the forces
To join the thrill

So here we are
We're one for all
And all for one
And now you see us coming
Time has come to testify
We're dynamite tonight
We will not kneel
For stainless steel
For patina we lust
Trust in rust
Trust in rust, oh!

Watching them debating
And scattering their lies
Still they're meditating
"Why did she call me oversized?"
I could not care less
Got songs to finalize
Adding some more chapters
To my book of life

So here we are
We're one for all
And all for one
And now you see us coming
Time has come to testify
We're dynamite tonight
We will not kneel
For stainless steel
For patina we lust
Trust in rust
Trust in rust, oh!

We will not kneel
For stainless steel
For rust we lust
Trust in rust

Yeah!

So here we are
We're one for all
And all for one
And now you see us coming
Time has come to testify
We're dynamite tonight
We will not kneel
For stainless steel
For patina we lust

Trust in rust
Trust in rust

We will not kneel
For stainless steel
For rust we lust
Trust in rust

Ooh, we won't kneel
For stainless steel
For rust we lust
We've got an iron crust

Trust in rust
Oh, trust in rust!
