

Dust

Van Hunt

It's just another day
Another episode
Of hiding under the world
It's just another ray
Of merciful hope
I don't expect many more

I'm already insane
I'm already in pain

And if this time
You don't rescue me
I won't blame you at all
Cause you see
I know that i've gone
In too deep
For you to risk a fall

I'm already insane
I'm already in pain
I'm already insane

I am dust blown away over the edge
I am dust blown away over the edge
I am dust blown away over the edge
I am dust blown away over the edge

Never thought that
I would be the one with the winning hand
So you see
It's no blow to my sophistication
That i've gone crazy again

I'm already insane
I'm already in pain
I'm already insane

I am dust blown away over the edge
I am dust blown away over the edge
I am dust blown away over the edge
I am dust blown away over the edge

Already insane
Already in so much pain
Already insane
Yeeeeaaaaaahhhhhhhh

I am dust blown away over the edge
I am dust blown away over the edge
I am dust blown away over the edge
I am dust blown away over the edge

I'm already insane
I'm already in pain
I'm already insane
