

If I Take You Home

Van Hunt

I'm on the highway
If you're going my way
Let's take the fast lane to your place
Together
Something's come over me
I stink of teenage heat
Lay me down before I freeze
Forever
If I take you home, will you respect me in the mornin'?
(Yeah, yeah, yeah)
If I take you home, will you write my name in a song?
(Yeah, yeah)
I want you
'Cause I need to
Never felt so sure about a cure upon meeting someone new
Watch me baby!
Watch me!
We're going nowhere
Can't wait to get back there
So I can pull your hair
Forever
(You know it feels good)
I know it feels good
(Just the way pain should)
Just the way pain should
(The young and dirty laugh through)
The young and dirty laugh through it
Together
If I take you home, will you respect me in the mornin'?
(Yeah, yeah, yeah)
If I take you home, will you write my name in a song?
(Yeah, yeah)
I want you
'Cause I need to
Never felt so sure about a cure upon meeting someone new
Watch me baby!
Watch me!
All the fightin' and collidin' has got my lovin' bent
(Yeah, yeah, yeah)
Indication of a strained relation has my devotion spent
(Yeah, yeah, yeah)
I know what it looks like
But the time is right
Never felt so sure about a cure for the quiet life
I want you
'Cause I need to
Never felt so sure about a cure upon meeting someone new
Hey there lady, won't you take me home? I'll write yo name in a song
Hey there lady, won't you take me home? I'll write yo name in a song
Hey there lady, won't you take me home? I'll write yo name in a song
Hey there lady, won't you take me home? I'll write yo name in a song
Hey there lady, won't you take me home? I'll write yo name in a song
Hey there lady, won't you take me home? I'll write yo name in a song
