

Big Lie

Van Morrison

It was all a big lie
There was no heart to break
Everything seemed about it fake
Like it just didn't take
Got to make no mistake
It was all a big lie

I was king for a day
I was just making hay
They hung on to every word
Oh yes they did

That I had to say
When I turned around
Somebody stole my crown
It was all a big lie

Well I thought I knew
But I got fooled
It could easily happen to you
(But don't look so smug)
But don't look so smug
(When they pull out the rug)
When they pull out the rug

My, my, my, my
My, my, my
It was all a big lie

There was no cake to bake
There was no more to break
There was no heart to ache
There was no time to waste
There was no food to taste
No love to take
No heart to break

There was no heart to break
There was too much at stake
There were no rules to make
It was for goodness sake
Try to keep me awake
But there was no heart to break

My, my, my, my, my, my, my
(No heart to break)
My, my, my, my, my, my, my
(No heart to break)
My, my, my, my, my, my, my
(No heart to break)
My, my, my, my, my, my, my
(No heart to break)

Make no mistake
Make no mistake
There was no heart to break
