

Cutting Corners

Van Morrison

Cutting corners but I'm making do
It's no life without you
'Cause I'm cutting corners and I'm standing still Missing you and I always will

Holding back, holding back
Keeping all those feelings deep within
Baby, baby, but I'm wondering why
These feelings always seem to win, seem to win

'Cause I'm cutting corners for too long
Feeling low but I'm acting strong
Cutting corners 'til you call
Just a call, baby, that is all

Holding back, holding back
Keeping all my feelings deep within, deep within
Why do these feelings
Why, baby, why do they always seem to win, seem to win?

I'm just cutting corners for too long
Feeling low but I'm acting strong
I'm just cutting corners until you call
Just a call, that's all I need, baby, that's all

Cutting corners, I'm making do
It's no life without you
'Cause I'm cutting corners but I'm standing still Missing you and I always will

Missing you and I always will
Missing you and I always will
Missing you and I always will
