

Red Sails In The Sunset

Van Morrison

Red sails in the sunset
Way out on the sea
Oh, carry my loved one
Home safely to me

She sailed with the dawning
All day I've been blue
Red sails in the sunset
I'm counting on you

Swift wings we must borrow
Head straight for the shore
I'll meet you tomorrow
You'll go sailing no more

Red sails in the sunset
Way out on the sea
Carry my loved one
Home safely to me

Alright

Swift wings we must borrow
Head straight for the shore
I'll meet you tomorrow
Go sailing no more

Red sails in the sunset
Way out on the sea
Oh, carry my loved one
Home safely to me

Red sails in the sunset
Way out on the sea
Carry my loved one
Home safely to me
