

Remembering Now

Van Morrison

This is what I need
Back here on the street
Back in Belfast
Strumming this guitar
It took me very far
This is who I am
This is where we are

Back in Belfast
This is how it started
This is where
How and then it is
Back to square one
This is where it all
Has just begun again

Blooming days of wonder
Golden days of youth
Nothing but the truth
This is where I started
This is where I'm at
This is who I am
This is who I am

It's like you never left back where you started from
In the eternal now
Close your eyes
Feel the presence
In the landscape
Past and always present
Remembering now

All around your body auric field
Ethereic, grounded in the land
In the presence of the source
Of the now moment
Down the same streets
Remembering how it is, was, and is now
Remembering now

This is who I am (This is who I am)
This is who I am (This is who I am)
This is who I am
This is who I am
This is who I am
Remembering now
This is who I am
This is who I am (This is who I am)
This is who I am
This is who I am
This is who I am (This is who I am)
This is who I am (This is who I am)
Remembering
Remembering now

This is what I mean
Back here on the street

Back in Belfast, strumming this guitar
It took me very far
Where I am
This is where we are
Back here on the street

This is how it started
This is where
This is how
This is then
This is now
Back to square one
Where it's all begun again

Blooming days of wonder
Golden days of youth
Nothing but the truth
This is where it started from
Remembering now
And this is who I am

It's like you never left
Back where you started from
In the eternal now
Close your eyes and feel the presence
In the landscape past and present
And always present
Remembering now

All around your body auric field
Ethereic, grounded in the real
The presence of the source
Of the now moment
Down the same streets
Remembering how
It is, was, and is now

Remembering now
Remembering now
Remembering now
Remembering now
Remembering now
Remembering now
Remembering now

This is who I am
This is who I am (This is who I am)
This is who I am (This is who I am)
This is who I am (This is who I am)
This is who I am (This is who I am)
Remembering, remembering now
This is who I am
This is who I am (This is who I am)
This is who I am (This is who I am)
This is who I am (This is who I am)
This is who I am (This is who I am)
Remembering, remembering now
This is who I am
This is who I am
This is who I am
This is who I am
Remembering now (This is who I am)
Remembering now

Remembering now
This is who I am
This is who I am
This is who I am
This is who I am
Remembering now (This is who I am)
Remembering now (This is who I am)
