

Three Chords And The Truth

Van Morrison

Well I started to sing
Hear the church bells ring
Three chords and the truth
Donigan was king

I said give me something
That I can use
Three chords and the truth
Shot of rhythm and blues

When the band comes through
And you know what to do
Got to play the blues
Three chords and the truth

And I woke up in the morning
And I heard the good news
Three chords and the truth
A shot of rhythm and blues

Three chords and the truth
Got to do everything
Hear the church bells ring
Donigan was king

Well I woke up in the morning
Before I went to school
Three chords and the truth
A shot of rhythm and blues

Three chords and the truth
Shot of rhythm and blues
Three chords and the truth
Baby, that I can use

Woke up in the morning
And I read the good news
Three chords and the truth
A shot of rhythm and blues

Three chords and the truth
Baby, you've got to move
Three chords and the truth
Got to stay in the groove

When your feet start dancing
And you just got nothing to lose
Three chords and the truth
A shot of rhythm and blues

Three chords and the truth
A shot of rhythm and blues
Three chords and the truth
Shot of rhythm and blues

Three chords and the truth

Three chords and the truth

Truth, truth, truth, truth, truth
Truth, truth, truth, truth, truth
Truth, truth, truth, truth, truth, truth
