

BEG!

Vana

Beg for it

I didn't take you for somebody who was masochistic
The way you're worshiping my body like you're superstitious
I didn't think we'd end the night with you wearing my lipstick
And now you're bound up on the ground like this ritualistic

(No!)

Don't get up, stay on the ground now
You're gonna do what I want, don't make a sound now
(Argh!)

Don't stand up, just use your words for me
"Please, p-p-pretty please?"
I said stay on your fucking knees!

Baby you'll get what you deserve
(I know you want it, want it)
(I know you need it, need it)
And I can promise that I'll make it hurt
I just need you to be
B-b-b-beg for it
Want you to beg for me!

Fear in your eyes
Take a deep breath in, I'm your oxygen, babe
You'll be just fine
Vision dissipates, you asphyxiate

It's kinda funny how I don't see a need for you to breathe
I'll take your heart and then I'll wear it proudly out on my sleeve
I got a problem distinguishing between lust and greed
Don't need to be what you want
I'll be what you fucking need!

Baby you'll get what you deserve
(I know you want it, want it)
(I know you need it, need it)
And I can promise that I'll make it hurt
(Just how you like it, like it)
(I know you like it, like it)
I wanna show you what you're worth
(You're worth nothing)
(You're worth nothing!)

'Cause I'm your god to love and to serve
I just need you to be
B-b-b-beg for it

Good job!
(Stay on your fucking knees)
Beg, for, me!
Good job!
Beg, beg, beg, beg, beg

'Till your tears run red
Weeping as they shed (weeping as they shed)
The crimson that you bled
Baby, I want you to beg

Baby, I need you to...
