

Die For Me!

Vana

Come now, baby, can't you see?
I should be your everything
Fuck the diamonds, pearls, and rings
Just serenade me with your scream
Bumps of blood on the tip of my tongue
You've kissed my pointed blade of love (kissed my blade)
So what's the point of living
If you won't die for me?

If you won't die for me

You invited me in, the silver in your eye
And the burning on my skin (burning on my skin)
Flatline red satin, it blends in with your dress
Feel it trickle down my chin (drip, drip, drip, drip)

Painted lips and
Rosey bricks and red
You'll be done with that soon
Because diamonds are overrated
Hold you close to my chest
You're the queen of my deck
Just surrender your neck
And we can be together

Come now, baby, can't you see?
I should be your everything
Fuck the diamonds, pearls, and rings
Just serenade me with your scream
Bumps of blood on the tip of my tongue
You've kissed my pointed blade of love (kissed my blade)
So what's the point of living
If you won't die for me?

If you won't die for me

Be good for me (you're so good for me)
And let me sink my teeth into
My heroin (ah)
You're so addicting, I'm insisting

Stay with me awhile
Such a pretty little face
And a pretty little smile
You're so pretty, baby
Suddenly so shy
Now your heart's quickening in pace
Baby, you still in denial?
Baby, you still in denial? (Ohhhh)

If you won't die for me
If you won't die for me
If you won't die for me

Come now, baby, can't you see?
I should be your everything
Fuck the diamonds, pearls, and rings

Just serenade me with your scream
Bumps of blood on the tip of my tongue
You've kissed my pointed blade of love (kissed my blade)
So what's the point of living
If you won't die for me?
