

PLEASER

Vana

Focus, focus
Focus, focus on me

I need you to focus on my voice, concede it, I know you need it
What lead you to think you'd have a choice? (I'll keep it our little secret)
Who says that beggars can't be choosers? Slow and steady, you'll deny (I love it when you cry)
Nobody likes a sore loser (My eyes are heavy hypnotised)

You're looking at my, ah

Let your mind drift, feels good, doesn't it?
Please don't try to fight it, just let go
Take a deep breath in, you're surrendering
You're so fucking easy to control

Where's your defiance?
Not trying in the slightest
I know why you're crying
I know that you like it

Something tells me that you're a pleaser
You like it when I'm meaner
Who's my favorite overachiever?
My little bottom feeder

No, please, go ahead, step out of line
Why don't you use your pretty eyes and look around, see if you can find your spine?
Lips quiver, you're my boot licker
You look so much better when you're wrapped around my finger

Let your mind drift, feels good, doesn't it?
Please don't try to fight it, just let go
Take a deep breath in, you're surrendering
You're so fucking easy to control

Blood dripping, crimson sipping
Touching on your belly till your skin starts breathing
Where's your defiance? Not trying in the slightest
You're so fucking easy to control

Focus, focus, focus (On me)
Focus, focus, focus (On me)
(Focus, focus, focus on me)
(Focus, focus, focus on me)

Who says that beggars can't be choosers?
Nobody likes a sore loser!

I need you to focus on my voice

Focus on me
