Solid Ground

Vance Joy

Waves, yeah, it comes in waves
These faded pictures never wash away
Threads, I keep pulling these threads
Unravelled memories scatter in my head

Silence is golden, talk is cheap
Do you really have nothing more to say to me?

'Cause when your whole world turns upside down
I'll be your solid ground
When if your hope can't keep up the pace
I'll never walk away, that's not the way I'm made
Oh no, that's not the way I'm made

Days, we're just stacking up the days
Hard to get anywhere when you're running in place
Streets, we don't know where they lead
Let all those coulda-beens go quietly

'Cause when your whole world turns upside down
I'll be your solid ground
When if your hope can't keep up the pace
I'll never walk away, that's not the way I'm made
Oh no, that's not the way I'm made
Oh no, that's not the way I'm made, mm-hmm

Ah-ooh
Ah-ooh
Ah-ooh

When the whole world turns upside down
I'll be your solid ground
When your whole world turns upside down
(I'll be your solid ground)
I'll be your solid ground
When the whole world turns upside down
(I'll be your solid ground)
I'll be your solid ground
