

Vision 15teen * Monster

Vanden Plas

There's something I need to know
Show me the source of my soul
The devil's mirror from another universe
Can prove the innocence within all mankind's soul
So tell me what I need to know

Are you a monster? Are you a saint?
Some kind of vampyre?

Monster!
Monster!

Please, mirror, tell me a lie
You will have no second try
My only hope that you're not telling me the truth
Or all will end up in tears
The devil's hungry and he wants to let it end
He's waiting to suck out my soul right here

Are you a monster? Are you a saint?
Some kind of vampyre?

(3x) Monster!
Monster!

There's a fleck on my soul and it forces me to lie
Something's inside of me that I cannot deny
I'm not pure in my heart, but there is something I know
I'm trespassing the netherworlds just to find love
My true love and my son I once buried alive
Any price I would pay
To meet you - to meet you again

I am a monster - I'm not a saint
Some kind of vampyre

Monster!
Monster!
In the subfloors of my soul
Are no lies nor cheat or fraud
Monster!
Monster!
