

Shout

Vandenberg

The time has come
A line is crossed
You've seen it all you've had enough
You feel left out
And kicked around
Your mouth kept shut and your head pushed down

Get up and shout
Let it all come out
Let your voice be heard loud and proud
Shout it out loud
You're not the only one
You're not alone, we are a crowd

Out of the dark Into the light
You know what's wrong and right
No pain no gain, now that's how it goes
You've got a soul, come on let it show!

Get up and shout!
