

Devil's Casino

Vane Lily

Oh, hello!
Welcome to Hell, love!
How's about we start the show?
It goes like this:
You name your price
And then, you roll the dice two times

In here, the only limit's your greed!
How many wins do you think that you'll need?
How 'bout we start off
Betting a kiss?
That way, both of us will win

The prize lays on the table
So what do you do?
Do you think your luck is
Far too good to lose?
If you win, the fortune is yours to keep
If you lose, then everything belongs to me!

Take a shot
Come on and roll the dice
Lady Luck
May even be on your side!
Gold's a small price to pay
When gambling for
Fame, love and fortune

Oh, you won
Go on and claim your prize
But don't you want to go
Another time?
Pay the fee
And then we'll play promptly
But now I've upped the ante

Oh, what luck
It seems you've won, love!
You'll receive what you are owed
Unless you want to bet again
And maybe win a second load

In here, the only limit's your luck!
Will you win or be left starstruck?
How 'bout this time we
Bet some cash?
You know you want a bigger stash

Your fate's laid on the table
So what do you do?
Do you think your luck is
Far too good to lose?
If you win, my love is yours to keep
If you lose, then your soul belongs to me!

Take a shot
Come on and roll the dice

Lady Luck
Will surely be on your side!
Gold's a small price to pay
I think we should
Make this exciting

Oh, you won
Go on and claim your prize
But don't you want to go
Just one more time?
Pay the fee
And be rich beyond greed
But again I've upped the ante

Give me a kiss
And bruise my hips
Desire, sin
From deep within
One day this place
Will be your grave
So, baby, don't forget
I have the ace

Pick a card, any card
And take a shot
Take a smoke, 'till your insides rot
In the end, your story's just for
My entertainment

Take a shot
(Pick a card, any card)
Come on and roll the dice
(And take a shot)
Lady Luck
(Take a smoke, 'till your insides rot)
May even be on your side!
(In the end, your story's just for)
Gold's a small price to pay
When gambling for
Fame, love and fortune

Take a shot!
Come on and roll the dice
You'd better pray
That luck is on your side
Gold's a small price to pay
You're betting your soul forevermore

Oh, you lost?
Oh, dear, I'm quite surprised!
I guess that means that I've won this time!
Pay the fee
Oh love
Now honestly
Now your soul belongs to me

I know, my love, it's a pity!

Now give me a kiss
