

Heart's Claws

Vane Lily

You can have my parts if, and only if, you
Tear me limb from limb, break the stitches on my
Heart, my lungs, my brain, oh, just make me into art
If nothing's real then just take it all apart

You can keep my heart, if and only if you
Give a dying kiss, say, is this world truly bliss?
I know a girl, torn, dismembered, such as I
Has got no worth in this life, so

Will you take my hand
To the underworld?
I don't need a plan
Let your claws unfurl

If there's still a song
Playing in this world
It won't last for long
Let your skin unfurl

Let it all unfurl

You can have my parts if, and only if, you
Tear me limb from limb, break the stitches on my
Heart, my lungs, my brain, oh, just make me into art
If nothing's real then just take it all apart
